

RESTATED ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
CLARK COUNTY HOME EDUCATORS

The undersigned, being of legal age, as incorporators of a nonprofit corporation under the Washington Nonprofit Corporation Act, hereby adopt the following Restated Articles of Incorporation for such nonprofit corporation. The Restated Articles of Incorporation accompanied herewith correctly set forth without change the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation as amended and the Restated Articles of Incorporation supersede the original Articles of Incorporation and all amendments thereto:

ARTICLE 1
NAME

The name of this corporation is: "CLARK COUNTY HOME EDUCATORS".

ARTICLE 2
DURATION

The period of duration of this corporation shall be perpetual.

ARTICLE 3
PURPOSES

This corporation is organized exclusively for one or more of the purposes as specified in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, including, for such purposes, the making of contributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. The specific purposes include:

- (a) To offer educational services and support for the homeschool community;
- (b) To engage in any activity that may lawfully be conducted by a nonprofit corporation organized under the Washington Nonprofit Corporation Act, consistent with the provisions and restrictions of IRC §501(c)(3).
- (c) To engage in all such activities as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the purposes of this corporation or any of them and to exercise any and all powers authorized or permitted to be done by a nonprofit corporation under any laws that may be now or hereafter applicable or available to this corporation.

The foregoing clauses of this Article 3 shall each be construed as purposes and powers, and the matters expressed in each clause shall be in no way limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other clauses, but shall be regarded as independent purposes and powers; and nothing contained in these clauses shall be deemed in any way to limit or exclude any power, right or privilege given to this corporation by law or otherwise.

ARTICLE 4
CONTRACTS IN WHICH DIRECTORS MAY HAVE INTEREST

Any contract or other transaction between this corporation and one or more of its directors, or between this corporation and any corporation, firm, association or other entity of which one or more of its directors are members, directors, officers or employees or in which they are interested, shall be valid for all purposes, notwithstanding the presence of such director or directors at the meeting of the Board of Directors which acts upon or in reference to such contract or transaction and notwithstanding his or their participation in such action, by voting or otherwise, even though his or their presence or vote, or both, might have been necessary to obligate this corporation upon such contract or transaction; provided, that the fact of such interest shall be disclosed to or known by the Directors acting on such contract or transaction.

ARTICLE 5
DIRECTORS

The number of directors of this corporation shall be fixed by the Bylaws and may be increased or decreased from time to time in the manner specified therein. The Board of Directors currently consists of four director positions, and the names and addresses of the persons who serve as the directors until their successors are elected and qualified, unless they resign or are removed, are:

ARTICLE 7
BYLAWS

The Board of Directors shall have the power to adopt, amend or repeal the Bylaws for the corporation.

ARTICLE 8
ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS

Additional provisions which shall apply to the operation of the corporation are as follows:

Upon the dissolution of this corporation, its assets remaining after payment, or provision for payment, of all debts and liabilities of this corporation shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose.

No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation (except as otherwise provided by Section 501(h) of the Internal Revenue Code), and this corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office.

No part of the net earnings of this corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that this corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in these Articles.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, this corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (1) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or (2) by a corporation contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code.

In any taxable year in which this corporation is a private foundation as described in Section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, the corporation: 1) shall distribute its income for said period at such time and manner as not to subject it to tax under Section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code; 2) shall not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code; 3) shall not retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code; 4) shall not make any investments in such manner as to subject the corporation to tax under Section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code; and 5) shall not make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code.
