Woodland Curriculum Sale May 19 from 1:00–3:00 p.m.

Homeschool families will man their own tables of curricula for sale. A special table will also be set up for answering homeschooling questions. Participation is free. Parents are asked to keep their children close by and supervised at all times. The sale will be hosted at Woodland Christian Church. To reserve a table, please contact Cary Komes at tckblessed@centurylink.net.

"Should You Homeschool a Child with Special Needs?"

by Marianne Sunderland

"When our family started homeschooling some 20 years ago, it seemed like a natural progression of what we were already doing with our kids; talking about the world, reading good books, exploring our community and simply experiencing life together. I mean, all that was left was to teach reading and math. How hard could that really be?" Click here to read the article.

CCHE Used Curriculum Sale Canceled This Year

Due to several challenges, CCHE will not be holding the Used Curriculum Sale (UCS) this year. Instead, we encourage buyers and sellers to participate in the Oregon Christian Home Education's Conference Used Curriculum Exchange. Sellers can drop off their registered items at a Vancouver satellite location.

Register for Living Waters Spanish Classes

2017-18 classes are available in Vancouver and online for ages 10 and up. Classes are designed to teach students to communicate about everyday matters and the Gospel. The cost is $57 per month per student, which includes curriculum. There is a one-time fee of $86 per student. Parents and grandparents of students are welcome to take classes along with their student for free. Click here to learn more.

"Volunteering for Homeschoolers" (Why and How for Students)

By Barbara Hettle

"Many homeschooling teens find volunteering to be one of the most satisfying part(s) of their high school education. In this three part series we will explore why teens should volunteer, where they can find volunteer opportunities, and how volunteering may be relevant in college admissions and scholarships." Magenta Theater Presents "The War of the Worlds: The 1938 Radio Script" May 20, 7:30 p.m.

Fact: "On Sunday, October 30, 1938, millions of radio listeners were shocked when radio news alerts announced the arrival of Martians. They panicked when they learned of the Martians' ferocious and seemingly unstoppable attack on Earth...many of the listeners believed what they heard on the radio was real."
